appear to Mr. Lind a valid excuse for procrastination

The prevention of the convening of gress has been one of the essential points in the negotiations conducted Mr. Lind: this for two feasons, first, it was believed that the new congress would lose no time in passing measures having to do with the oil concessions, and, second, because the convening of congress would give an air of legality to Huerta's government.

HOWARTH'S STATEMENT.

Line of Defense Indicated by Cross-Examination-Mrs. Bennett Tells of His Proposal of Marriage to Her.

(Special to The Bulletin.) Willimantic, Nov. 12.—The first in-timation of a possible defense in the Howarth arson case became apparent during Wednesday's testimony. Attorney Harvey in his cross examination of Mrs. Bennett, seemed to desire to bring out, so far as was pos-sible, the fact that Howarth was in fact her attorney and that he intended to go west on bona fide business for

It also appeared that the defense might endeavor to show that How-arth's alleged statement "This hand et all the Putnam fires" was given under the influence of cocaine or liquor and was subsequently retracted, Both the woman detective, Mrs. Benett, and State Policeman Hurley, came out of their cross examination smilingly, without discredit, in spite f a long gruelling by Attorneys Harvey and King. An attempt by the lat-ter to discredit Hurley's testimony by forcing him to compare his written notes with the stenographer's excerpt of evidence was stopped by the court, Counsel Knew About Crinkly Paper. Much time was consumed in an attempt to mix up the witnesses in re-gard to the cocktails and wine served at Mrs. Bennett's home, but the results Legislation Requiring Them of Bride grooms Favored-Repeal of Summe Hotel License Law Desired.

Waterbury, Conn., Nov. 12.-The 7th annual meeting of the general conference of the Congregational shurch of Connecticut came to a close here tonight with the adoption of a number of resolutions and an address on "The Church and the Community" by Prof. William B. Bailey of Yale iniversity.

Oppose a Commercial Sunday. The conference took a decided stand pon the questions of Sunday observ ance and eugenic marriages. The dele gates unanimously adopted a resolureligious observance by law, but call ed upon the state to protect "the peace of the day and more effectively to protect the people from the commercialism of Sunday by unnecessary labor and business, professional games and entertainments."

Favor Eugenic Marriages. The resolution adopted on the marriage question follows: "This confer ence considers that the duty of promoting by moral influence the purity of the family and welfare of the home devolves in an especial manner upon the church. Therefore, this conference will look with favor upon legislation forbidding the issue of marriage licenses to men not provided with ade from communicable diseases." State Farm for Drunks Favored. Other resolutions adopted put the onference on record as being in favor f a state farm for drunkards, the limitation of saloons to one for 1,000 peo-ple, and the repeal of the Sunday li-enses for summer hotels. Professor Bailey pointed out the so cial shortcomings of the church and urged the more extensive use church property for the benefit of the parish houses for dances and the formation of clubs for girls and boys of the neighborhood

"I know that they will wear out the carpets" he said, "but to preserve its carpets is not the chief end of the church's existence."
